

Portuguese American Archives
University of Massachusetts Dartmouth

Vertical file collection

Manuscript Collections - MC 30/PAA

Extent: 8 linear feet
(12 manuscript boxes, one shoe box and 2 oversize boxes), open series

Scope and Content Note: Collection consists of printed materials, commemorative publications, newspaper clippings, ephemera, photographs, artifacts and other materials collected on many aspects of the Portuguese immigration and immigrant communities in the United States. The focus of the collection, however, is on the Portuguese American communities in southeastern Massachusetts, especially in Fall River and New Bedford. Collection is arranged alphabetically by subject and continually supplemented.

Access: unrestricted. Published materials are subject to copyright law.

Acquisition: Many items collected by Frances Sylvia Gracia and donated to the Portuguese American Archives. Other items collected by the Portuguese American Historical Federation of Fall River. Various other donors as well, including Mary Carvalho and Fernandes E. and Maria F. Lopes.
