Administrative note: Robert C. Dagleish term as Interim Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs commenced September, 1990-July, 1993. L. Bryce Anderson served as Interim Provost and Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs from January, 1994-May 31, 1994. Benjamin F. Taggie was named as the first permanent Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs as of August 15, 1994. Chancellor Cressy announced Dr. Thomas J. Curry as his selection for Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs on April 14, 1999. Louis Esposito began his term as Interim Provost and Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs on July 1, 2003.

The Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, the chief academic officer, reports directly to the Chancellor, may act on the Chancellor's behalf in his absence, and provides leadership and administrative support to the academic divisions of the University: the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Business and Industry, Engineering, Nursing, and Visual and Performing Arts; the Library, the Registrar, Enrollment Management, Graduate Studies, Research and Sponsored Programs, Continuing Education, Computing and Information Technology Services, and a variety of student academic services. She/he may also act as the Executive Vice Chancellor with broad responsibilities for the internal management of the campus. Primary responsibilities include oversight of academic affairs and academic centers, program and personnel development and evaluation, budget and resource development, leadership of the Councils of Academic Deans and Directors, supervision of other academic support services, and encouragement and support of grant writing efforts. The Provost and Vice Chancellor collaborates with the academic leadership of the other campuses in the University of Massachusetts system, works with the leadership of UMass Dartmouth's other divisions to ensure the effectiveness of services and support programs, serves on the Chancellor's Executive Advisory Council, and assumes other duties as assigned by the Chancellor.

Scope and Contents note: The collection consists of subject files weeded from the files in the Office of the Provost. It is arranged alphabetically with the same folder titles used by the office of origin.

Acquisition: Transferred from the Provost's Office, 8/16/99 and 1/16/04 (Accession # 00-4, 04-10).

Access: Some items may be restricted under the exemptions to the Massachusetts Public Records Law. Please consult the University Archivist.
