Robert F. Kennedy Assassination Archive Collection MC1/RFKAA

Background note

New York Senator Robert F. Kennedy was assassinated just after midnight, on June 5, 1968, in the kitchen pantry of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles, California, immediately after delivering a Presidential primary victory speech in the hotel ballroom on the night of June 4. Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, a Palestinian immigrant, was immediately apprehended at the scene. The case was investigated by the Los Angeles Police Department Detective Squad, and the FBI Los Angeles Field Office. Sirhan Sirhan went to trial in January 1969 and was convicted on April 17, 1969.

The Robert F. Kennedy Assassination Archive (RFKAA) at the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth, dedicated April 20, 1988, was assembled by author and professor of Political Science Philip Melanson and the RFKAA Committee of the University Library* Original materials, including research files, audiotape interviews, videotapes and newsclippings were donated in several installments beginning in 1984, by a number of private individuals investigating discrepancies in the case. These individuals were among the first to question the Los Angeles Police Department, the FBI and the Los Angeles County District Attorney's handling of the case. They include journalist Robert Blair Kaiser, members of the Assassination Truth Committee Lillian Castellano and Floyd Nelson, investigators Gregory Stone, Betsy Langman, and Philip Melanson. To this core collection were added thousands of pages of FBI documents, released by the Freedom of Information Act to the University, between 1984 and 1986. This group comprises a copy of the complete FBI Los Angeles Field and Sub files produced during the investigation, including witness interviews and interdepartmental communications. After repeated requests citing the California Public Records Act and pressure from the public, the Los Angeles Police Department finally released its files for public inspection in 1987. The original records were first deposited in the Los Angeles City Archives, where the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth obtained copies of many audiotapes, the "Summary Report" and copies of numerous investigative files produced by the Los Angeles Police Department. The California State Archives was chosen as the permanent home for the records of the investigation in 1987, and a microfilm copy of the collection was obtained for the RFKAA soon thereafter. The collection also includes a complete copy of all transcripts for Sirhan Sirhan's court trial, hearings and appeals to the Los Angeles County Superior and Supreme Courts, the Kranz Report and selected minutes of the House Select Committee on Assassinations. Correspondence relating to the establishment of the RFK Assassination Archives can be found in J-K3 of the University records (not RFKAA). This file was supplemented in February 1996 by correspondence copied from the files of Janet Freedman, Dean of the Library, 1978-1995. The 1992 request to the Los Angeles County Grand Jury to re-open the case (books 153-155) is an excellent source for a summary of the assassination, its investigation and subsequent problems and questions left unanswered.

Scope and content of the collection

The RFKAA includes correspondence, copies of government and legal documents, audiotapes, videotapes, notebooks, photographs, magazine and newsclippings, reports and books published about Robert F. Kennedy and his assassination. The collection is divided into 6 series, I through VI, with 10 item- and file-level indexes. The series are arranged in order of the sequence of the case, and most files within the series are arranged alphabetically, except for the court documents and the newsclippings files, which are arranged chronologically. The entire collection totals 155 boxes/books and 45 published books. See the book and box list following the series descriptions for an inventory or the contents of the collection. The inventory should be supplemented with the appropriate RFKAA Index.

*The University of Massachusetts Dartmouth was then known as Southeastern Massachusetts University, and the University Library was then known as the Library Communications Center.

Processing note

The collection was reorganized by University Archivist Judy Farrar, with the assistance of Doria Alfiero and Jennifer Walsh, August-September, 1996. Finding Aid by Judy Farrar, September 1996. The original "cataloguing scheme", A-P was not retained, however, these designations are still apparent on many file labels.

Series descriptions

Series I. Records of the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) investigation into the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy (task force "Special Unit Senator"), 1968-1969

22 rolls of microfilm, 83 audiotapes, copies of transcripts of taped interviews, summaries of taped interviews of key witnesses, polygraph test results conducted on key witnesses, photographs, and copy of the 14- volume "Summary Report" (1969) and "Supplemental Report".

The California State Archives (CAS) was chosen in 1987 to be the official repository for the records of the LAPD investigation into the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy. The investigation, known as Special Unit Senator, was conducted between 6/5/68 and 6/9/69. To assure the security of the collection and to provide access to the public, CAS microfilmed the entire collection except Series 8 (FBI Indexes and report) Series 17 (Films) Series 20 (Record and background checks - restricted), Series 30 (Tape recorded interviews), Series 31 (Stenotype notes), Series 32 (Magnetic tapes) and Series 33 (Physical evidence). See the "Guide to the Los Angeles Police Department Records of the Robert F. Kennedy Assassination Investigation", California State Archives, 1993 for details on the content of each series.

Series II Records of the FBI Investigation into the assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy, code name KENSALT, FBI file # 56-156 and 62-587, 1968- 1969

Copies of documents obtained from the FBI through the Freedom of Information Act include the contents of all field files associated with the investigation, an alphabetically-arranged collection of 1,651 witness interviews, and reprints of photographs contained with Subfile X-1. The code name for the investigation, which appears on many documents, was KENSALT. The names of Special Agents and other information deemed to be private, was redacted (blacked-out) by the FBI before the documents were released to the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth between 1984 and 1986.

Contents include: Field Files (Volumes 1-49), 19 manuscript boxes

These field files, arranged by volume number, are further divided into lettered Sub files (A-Z) with accompanying exhibits at the end of each volume.

Subfiles X-1 through X-8 (Volumes 1-21), 32 slipcased 3-ring binders

There is a table of contents and name index for each Subfile located at the beginning of each. A complete index and table of contents for X-1 through X-8 is also available in Index # 2.

Witness Interviews (1,651), 39 manuscript boxes.

Duplicates of witness interviews filed within the Field and Sub files.

Here arranged (by the FBI) alphabetically by name of interviewee. Interviewees were assigned identification numbers in sequence with the alphabetical arrangement.

Newsclippings collected by the FBI, 1968-1969; Photographs (reprints obtained from the FBI and LAPD; the originals were filed with the FBI Subfiles.

Series III: Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office, court records, 1968-1971

Series IV: Official reports on the case, after the initial investigation, 1977

2 binders and one manuscript box.
Consists of: The Report of Thomas F. Kranz on the Assassination of Senator Robert F. Kennedy, March 1977 and minutes of the House Select Committee on Assassinations, 1977.

Series V: Private investigations into the case, 1968-1996

Includes research subject files, photographs, videotapes, notebooks and audiotapes donated by private citizens and journalists who investigated the case. Donors include members of The Kennedy Assassination Truth Committee (the Floyd B. Nelson and Lillian Castellano collection), Robert Blair Kaiser, author of R.F.K. must die!, Betsy Langman, Philip Melanson, Dan Moldea, and Greg Stone. Their research files were combined to form the "Personal Name Subject files" and "Subject files" (Boxes 125-136); other materials from their files and articles written by them are found in the "General files" (boxes 105-107) arranged alphabetically by private investigator's name. Their collected magazine and newsclippings were also combined to form one chronological grouping (Boxes 133-146). All of the audiotapes are in boxes 127-132. These files are considered an open series and may be added to periodically.

The Kennedy Assassination Truth Committee

Members of the committee included Mike Farrell, chairman, John R. Clemente, Lillian Castellano, Fred T. Newcomb and Floyd B. Nelson. The bulk of the collection consists of the investigative work of Lillian Castellano, who gathered photographic evidence of three additional bullet holes that the police did not account for in the pantry of the Ambassador Hotel. Castellano testified before the Los Angeles Grand Jury in 1971 in an attempt to have the case reopened.

Robert Blair Kaiser

Writer, columnist, editor, magazine and newspaper correspondent, and journalism professor.

Author of the book R.F.K. Must Die! A history of the Robert F. Kennedy Assassination and its aftermath (1970), correspondent for the New York Times and Time Magazine and Professor of Journalism at the University of Nevada at Reno.

Kaiser's donation includes seven spiral bound notebooks, compiled between June 1968 and June 1969, of interviews and notes taken during the research conducted for his book R.F.K. Must Die! ..Collection also includes photocopies of articles written by Kaiser about the assassination, for various newspapers and magazines, as well as copies of outgoing correspondence and copies of handwritten and typescript notes not included in the notebooks, an undated draft of Kaiser's article in Life Magazine, published 1972, and materials on the 1993 seminar at the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth, to which Kaiser was invited to speak.

Related material: Signed copy of R.F.K. Must Die! in Special Collections includes a photograph of Kaiser attached to the title page. Audiotape interview of Kaiser by Betsy Langman in box .

Philip Melanson

Political science professor at the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth (formerly Southeastern Massachusetts University), 1971 to the present, author and expert on political assassinations, member of the governing board of the Coalition on Political Assassinations. Collection consists of correspondence, copies of magazine and newspaper articles by and about Melanson, transcriptions of talks and depositions, as well as audiotapes. Melanson's books on the assassination, The Robert F. Kennedy assassination: new revelations on the conspiracy and cover-up (E840.8.K4 M46 1991) New York: Shapolsky Publishers, 1991 and Who Killed Robert Kennedy? Berkeley, CA: Odonian Press, 1993 (E840.8.K4 M45 1993) are catalogued for Special Collections.

Betsy Langman

Private investigator and journalist. Collection includes 30 audiotapes, transcripts of interviews with witnesses and others involved in the case, and copies of articles by Langman. Transcriptions of many of the interviews Ms. Langman conducted are in the Personal name subject files.

Dan Moldea

Investigative journalist and author. Collection includes copies of interviews and a copy of Moldea's article on the assassination in the June 1987 issue of Regardie's.

Gregory Stone and Allard K. Lowenstein,

Allard K. Lowenstein was a congressman from New York State who died in 1980. He was one of the first individuals to question the handling of the assassination investigation and wrote articles on the subject for Saturday Review. Gregory Stone was Mr. Lowenstein's assistant and continued the congressman's efforts by attempting, with Philip Melanson, to have the case reopened. The collection includes correspondence, memos to Allard Lowenstein, copies of court documents, and an analysis of the "Kranz Report". 9 folders.

Series VI. Published materials and books about Robert F. Kennedy, his Assassination, and related topics.

51 books and one set of microfilm.
